

Volunteer Management

This program will be of practical use and interest to anyone working with volunteers including recruitment, training and how to retain volunteers for building and managing trails.

Course Information

WHEN
Open

LOCATION
Open

COST
$150.00 plus HST

Instructor: Diana Smyth

Diana enjoys a second career in outdoor education, trail leadership, volunteer management and fundraising.

Diana holds a Degree in Radio and Television Arts from Ryerson, a Certificate in Fundraising and Volunteer Management from George Brown College, a Certificate in Outdoor Education from Humber College and is a Hike Ontario Certified Wilderness Day Hike Leader, and Certified Hike Leader Instructor.

Diana created a volunteer-driven Guided Nature Walks program to introduce and promote Rouge Park, a unique near-urban wilderness park to new and established visitors. Currently supervising a team of 40 volunteers which will expand in 2012.

This course takes place over one day and will provide trail managers with tools and skills required to properly recruit, train, and retain volunteers as part of the trail building and management process. This course will focus on identifying and understanding the volunteering cycle to address current and future volunteering needs for the organization, leading to building a volunteer management tool kit. The session will consist of both theory and practical training.

Registration: Commences when date and location confirmed

Or contact: Shelley May, Ontario Parks Association

training@ontarioparksassociation.ca

Course Facilitator: Graham Burke, Ontario Trails Council

Learn more at www.ontariotrails.on.ca/courses

In partnership with:

Supported by:

