

May 30, 2008 - Hidden Gems Audio Tour - Official Release May 30th, 2008

ADVENTURE SEEKERS WANTED!!!

"Choose Your Own Adventure" with the Haliburton Highlands Hidden Gems Driving Audio Tour.

The Haliburton Highlands Trails and Tours Network is pleased to introduce the first ever "Driving Audio Tour" in the County of Haliburton. Adventure seekers will drive to four of the counties Hidden Gems, each with its own history & exciting activities. The four Hidden Gems include the Historic Hawk Lake Log Chute, the Minden Wildwater Preserve, the Geocaching Capital of Canada and the Ganaraska Trail. All activities take place outdoors & can include Geocaching (Treasure Hunting), swimming, white-water and/or flat-water kayaking and/or canoeing, fishing, hiking, picnicking & even conquering the "Blairhampton Triangle".

The tour is accompanied with a brochure that includes your "Treasure Map", "What to Bring?", "GPS Coordinates to each location" and "Tips and Tricks". The audio can be purchased from the Trails and Tours website at www.trailsandtours.com as audio files or purchased as a CD throughout the county. Each location has an audio track with a set of GPS coordinates as well as driving directions & a separate track with the location's history, interesting facts and what you can see and do. The tour can be done in one day however they suggest splitting it up into several days so that you can enjoy the entire tour and all it has to offer. The Hidden Gems Driving Audio Tour is sure to excite everyone in the family.

The Hidden Gems Audio Tour is also featured on tourcaster.com one of the leading international Audio Tour distributors on the Internet.

The official launch of the Tour will be May 30th, 2008 at the Haliburton Home & Cottage Show, where CDs will be available for sale.

Why not come out and try the tour for yourself!
