

Trail Design

The objective of this course is to provide participants a firm understanding of the fundamentals of trail design for both hard surface and naturally surfaced trails of various user types.

Course Information

WHEN

Open

LOCATION

Open

COST

$275.00 + HST

Instructor: Daniel Scott

Brought onboard in the spring of 2009, Daniel spearheads IMBA Canada's consulting service, Trail Solutions.

Daniel is a graduate of the University of Guelph's School of Landscape Architecture, and holds a certificate in Mountain Bike Operations from Capilano University.

This two day course will provide attendees with information on:

- Sustainable Trail Design
- 5 Elements of Sustainable Design
- Bench cut Trail vs. Raised Tread Trail
- 13 Steps to Trail Planning
- Art of Trail Design
- Trail Closure & Rehabilitation
- Advanced Design & Construction Techniques
- Wooden Structures
- Rock Armouring
- Technical Trail Features
- Turns - Climbing, Insloped & Switchback

Registration: commences when date and location confirmed

Contact: Shelley May, Ontario Parks Association

training@ontarioparksassociation.ca

Course Facilitator: Graham Burke Ontario Trails Council, or

Learn more at www.ontariotrails.on.ca/courses

In partnership with:

Supported by:

